

December 10, 2015

SOLID SWELL AND HIGH SCORES DEFINE DAY 2 OF COMPETITION AT THE 2015 IQUIQUE PARA TODOS ISA WORLD BODYBOARD CHAMPIONSHIP

The shallow reef at la Punta Uno creates a heavy, wide barrel that has been a perfect canvas for some of the world's best bodyboarders to display their talent. Photo: ISA/Sean Evans

France's Martin Mouradian Notches First Perfect Wave in the Opening Round of Dropknee at la Punta Uno

Iquique, Chile, December 10, 2015 - Solid swell and high scores defined Day 2 of competition at the 2015 Iquique Para Todos ISA World Bodyboard Championship as perfect conditions greeted the international group of athletes at la Punta Uno.

France's Martin Mouradian grabbed the best wave of the day, notching the first perfect score of competition in the Opening Round of Dropknee. Mouradain pulled into a gaping right-hander and after travelling for a few seconds shot out causing an eruption of cheers from the crowd on the beach. (Click here to see Mouradian's perfect wave.)

The morning started off with six heats of Open Men's Main Event Round 2. Iquique local Matias Diaz set the tone for the day, scoring the first of a handful of 9-point rides in Thursday's competition.

"Compared to the conditions yesterday, today was amazing with epic conditions at la Punta Uno. I am a local here so I can really say that is true", exclaimed Diaz. "In my heat I was calm and taking my time to choose waves. I looked for the more northern angled waves and I got a heat total of 16.90."

The Open Women followed with their first action of the competition, where Chile's Paloma Freyggang complimented the strong performance of her male teammates by notching the highest female two-wave total of the day. Freyggang scored a total of 15.10, advancing through her heat along with Venezuela's Yuleiner Gonzalez (13.20).

CLICK HERE TO SEE THE FULL STORY