Super Speedway Sunday @ Nyora Raceway.

This Sunday April 17 will be super-speedway Sunday at Nyora Raceway with the first of the venues' winter series of daytime events.

The Wingless Sprints (pictured below) will be the dominant division as they take in a round of open racing while round 1 of the Intercity Signs Ladies of the Dirt series kicks off. Many teams will run the same V6 powered machine in both the open and ladies events making plenty of work for the hard working crews, drivers and owners. In fact some of the ladies will contest both the Ladies of the Dirt series as well as the open event.

As usual young Todd Hobson will be the home track hero searching for the win while Travis Millar will be trying to continue his run of success here.

At this stage of the nominations Wayne Ramsdale looks the likely winner of the Unlimited sedan events but we all know there is no such thing as a certainty in speedway.

Club member Rob Bushell will be full of confidence after taking the Standard Saloon win last weekend at Drouin, but will have to contend with a number of quick steerers including Dale Morrison, Bruce Bullard and Tegan Bullard who won the Ladies Standard Saloon event.

Speaking of Ladies they will also have their own Sedans races as will the Juniors in both the Standard Saloons and 1200cc Sedans.

Vintage Sprintcars and Supermodifieds will add further variety to a great program.

So all up it promises to be a top days speedway action at Victoria's raciest little bull ring. Make sure you're there.

Racing starts at 11:00am.
